Bill would ease political polarization and encourage bipartisanship

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE CONTACT: Jared Cordes

May 25, 2005

(202) 225-5235

BOYD JOINS COLLEAGUES IN CALLING FOR A FAIR REDISTRICTING PROCES

WASHI	NGTON, D.CCongr	essman Allen Boyd (D	-FL) joined Cong.	John Tanner (D-TN)	in introducing
"We mu	ust have a fair Congre	essional redistricting pr	ocess that is not b	pased on unabashed	political motiv
Redistri	icting is traditionally c	onducted every 10 yea	ars, following the o	decennial census, to	ensure equal _l
The red	listricting commission	established under this	s legislation would	be required to cons	ider the rights
FairVot	e - The Center for Vo	ting and Democracy h	ailed the bill as a ı	necessary step towa	rd taking partis

Cong. Boyd speaks outside of the U.S. Capitol about the Fairness and Independence in Redistr

Cong. Boyd speaks at event to highlight the need for redistricting reform

Boyd Joins Colleagues In Calling For A Fair Redistricting Process						